

LESSON 26

Practical Steps to Beat Temptation

11: Victory over Sin

Executive Summary

Temptation is resisted through dependence on God, not confidence in willpower. God remains faithful in every test and provides a way to endure without surrendering to sin. Believers should recognize vulnerable patterns, submit to God, answer deception with Scripture, pray, flee avoidable danger, and seek accountable help. Practical resistance begins before the moment of crisis and continues by returning quickly to Christ.

Key Terms

Temptation	A test or lure toward sin that must be resisted through Scripture, prayer, watchfulness, and dependence on God.
Resistance	Actively refusing temptation by submitting to God and using the means of grace He provides.
Watchfulness	Alert attention to spiritual danger, personal weakness, and the situations in which temptation gains strength.
Dependence	Relying on God's strength, wisdom, and provision rather than treating self-sufficiency as spiritual maturity.

Key Verses

English Standard Version (ESV)

1 Corinthians 10:13

13 No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.

James 4:7

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Application Questions

1. What does 1 Corinthians 10:13 promise about God's faithfulness, the limits of temptation, and the possibility of endurance?

2. Map one recurring temptation from beginning to end: trigger, deceptive thought, vulnerable setting, usual response, and consequence.

3. Which preventative response—Scripture, prayer, fleeing, changing access, or seeking help—needs to happen before your next moment of pressure?

4. Who can provide honest accountability, and exactly what will you ask that person to help you monitor?
