Jesus Explained: God in Human Form

4: Jesus Christ

Scripture Focus: John 1:1,14 · Colossians 1:15-17 · Philippians 2:5-8 · Hebrews 2:17

Jesus is not merely a prophet or teacher — He is God in the flesh, co-equal and co-eternal with the Father. Yet He also became fully human, entering our world in flesh and blood. This dual nature is essential to the gospel: because He was fully man, He could die; because He was fully God and sinless, His death could atone for others.

TEACHING NOTES

I. The Main Question

Christian discipleship begins with learning to see the incarnation of Christ from Scripture rather than from instinct, habit, or surrounding culture. The goal is not simply to collect religious information, but to have the mind, conscience, and affections trained by God's Word. Jesus is not merely a prophet or teacher — He is God in the flesh, co-equal and co-eternal with the Father. Yet He also became fully human, entering our world in flesh and blood. This dual nature is essential to the gospel: because He was fully man, He could die; because He was fully God and sinless, His death could atone for others.

A growing Christian asks: what does God require me to believe, reject, receive, or practice? Real maturity includes a clearer love for Christ, a humbler view of self, and a more faithful step of obedience.

II. What Scripture Says

John 1:1,14 and Colossians 1:15-17 and Philippians 2:5-8 and Hebrews 2:17 provide the biblical anchor. These passages keep the discussion tied to God's Word and give the learner a stable foundation for reflection. In John 1:1 and then again in verse 14 we read "In the beginning was the word." "And the word was with God and the word was God." The word actually in the capital there word is speaking of Jesus Christ.

Before moving too quickly to application, read the references slowly. Ask what the passage reveals about God, what it says about the human condition, what it commands or promises, and how it points the believer back to Christ. Scripture sets the agenda; Christian reflection follows where God has spoken.

III. The Doctrine Explained

Doctrine matters because discipleship is built on truth. Understanding who Jesus is and what he has done lies at the heart of the Christian faith. Doctrine is not a detached category for specialists; it names what every Christian is learning to believe, confess, defend, and practice.

Write the doctrine in your own words. Then ask how it fits into the larger story of Scripture: creation, fall, redemption, and Christian growth. A doctrine has been understood more deeply when it begins to reshape worship, repentance, assurance, humility, courage, and love.

SCRIPTURE SPOTLIGHT

John 1:1,14

John 1:1,14 should be read as more than a proof text. It gives the subject its center of gravity and keeps Christian thinking inside God's revealed Word rather than personal opinion.

Read John 1:1,14 first, then read Colossians 1:15-17 and Philippians 2:5-8 and Hebrews 2:17. Notice how the passages work together: one may name the doctrine, another may show its consequence, and another may press the believer toward obedience.

In John 1:1 and then again in verse 14 we read "In the beginning was the word." "And the word was with God and the word was God." The word actually in the capital there word is speaking of Jesus Christ.

Study the passage:

1. What does this passage teach about God, Christ, humanity, sin, grace, or obedience?

2. What word or phrase should control how you understand this truth?
3. How would this passage help a newer believer think more clearly?

FRAMEWORK

Who Christ Is and Why It Matters

CHRISTIAN CONFESSION	WHY IT MATTERS
Jesus is fully God.	His saving work has infinite worth and authority.
Jesus is fully man.	He truly represents us and truly died in our place.
Jesus is the risen Lord.	The believer's hope rests on a living Savior.

PAUSE & REFLECT

Before moving on, write one sentence answering this: where does the incarnation of Christ most need to become clearer or more obedient in your own life?

IV. Common Confusion

Common confusion usually begins when a biblical truth is reduced to a slogan, separated from its context, or filtered through personal experience. The New Testament presents Jesus not only as a historical figure but as the divine Son of God and Savior of the world. New believers especially need help seeing the difference between a biblical category and a half-true assumption.

When confusion appears, do not answer it only with opinion. Return to the text, define your terms, and make careful distinctions. Stability grows as hard questions are brought patiently under Scripture.

V. Why This Matters for Discipleship

Truth becomes fruitful when it forms the disciple. this study will explore who he is and what he has done for us. Biblical teaching should train the believer to worship, repent, trust, forgive, serve, pray, resist sin, and speak the gospel with clarity.

Ask where this truth should create maturity. Does it deepen assurance? Correct pride? Encourage obedience? Make Scripture more central? Strengthen witness? The question is not merely whether the content is understood, but what kind of disciple the truth is forming.

VI. How This Changes Daily Life

The incarnation of Christ belongs in ordinary Christian life, not merely in a notebook. Understanding who Jesus is and what he has done lies at the heart of the Christian faith. Identify one real setting where the truth should matter: a conversation, a temptation, a fear, a decision, a family moment, a church responsibility, or a private habit.

Growing in grace often happens through small, repeated acts of faithfulness. Choose one practice for this week that is concrete enough to obey, simple enough to remember, and biblical enough to strengthen your walk with Christ.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- the incarnation of Christ should train the way a believer thinks, worships, and obeys.
- Scripture must set the terms before personal experience, church culture, or instinct is allowed to define the issue.
- how this truth calls us to respond in faith, worship, and ultimately obedience to Jesus Christ.
- Christian maturity grows as doctrine moves from information into prayer, repentance, assurance, service, witness, and daily faithfulness.

REFLECTION

Questions for the Lesson

1. What should become clearer in your thinking about the incarnation of christ?

2. Where does this truth correct a common misunderstanding or shallow habit?

3. What is one concrete step of obedience, prayer, study, or conversation you should take this week?

PUT INTO PRACTICE

Your Task

1. Use John 1:1,14 to write a simple, biblical answer in your own words.

2. Name one practical step you would encourage this person to take this week.

3. Write one prayer request that fits the truth and the situation.
