TEACHING NOTES

I. The Main Question

Christian discipleship begins with learning to see the saving work of Christ from Scripture rather than from instinct, habit, or surrounding culture. The goal is not simply to collect religious information, but to have the mind, conscience, and affections trained by God's Word. The work of Jesus Christ is the centerpiece of the gospel. He lived the life we could never live, died the death we deserved, rose bodily from the grave, and now sits at the right hand of the Father interceding for His people. Through His blood we have redemption, forgiveness, and peace with God.

A growing Christian asks: what does God require me to believe, reject, receive, or practice? Real maturity includes a clearer love for Christ, a humbler view of self, and a more faithful step of obedience.

II. What Scripture Says

Isaiah 53:4-6 and 1 Peter 3:18 and 1 Corinthians 15:3-4 and Hebrews 7:25 provide the biblical anchor. These passages keep the discussion tied to God's Word and give the learner a stable foundation for reflection. Isaiah 53, an amazing chapter of scripture, but specifically in verses 4-6, we read, "Surely," and this is prophetically looking forward to Jesus Christ.

Before moving too quickly to application, read the references slowly. Ask what the passage reveals about God, what it says about the human condition, what it commands or promises, and how it points the believer back to Christ. Scripture sets the agenda; Christian reflection follows where God has spoken.

III. The Doctrine Explained

Doctrine matters because discipleship is built on truth. when we talk about the work of Jesus Christ number one his life he lived a life of perfect obedience. Doctrine is not a detached category for specialists; it names what every Christian is learning to believe, confess, defend, and practice.

Write the doctrine in your own words. Then ask how it fits into the larger story of Scripture: creation, fall, redemption, and Christian growth. A doctrine has been understood more deeply when it begins to reshape worship, repentance, assurance, humility, courage, and love.

SCRIPTURE SPOTLIGHT

Isaiah 53:4-6

Isaiah 53:4-6 should be read as more than a proof text. It gives the subject its center of gravity and keeps Christian thinking inside God's revealed Word rather than personal opinion.

Read Isaiah 53:4-6 first, then read 1 Peter 3:18 and 1 Corinthians 15:3-4 and Hebrews 7:25. Notice how the passages work together: one may name the doctrine, another may show its consequence, and another may press the believer toward obedience.

Isaiah 53, an amazing chapter of scripture, but specifically in verses 4-6, we read, "Surely," and this is prophetically looking forward to Jesus Christ.

Study the passage:

- 1. What does this passage teach about God, Christ, humanity, sin, grace, or obedience?*
- 2. What word or phrase should control how you understand this truth?*

3. How would this passage help a newer believer think more clearly?

FRAMEWORK

Who Christ Is and Why It Matters

CHRISTIAN CONFESSION	WHY IT MATTERS
Jesus is fully God.	His saving work has infinite worth and authority.
Jesus is fully man.	He truly represents us and truly died in our place.
Jesus is the risen Lord.	The believer's hope rests on a living Savior.

PAUSE & REFLECT

Before moving on, write one sentence answering this: where does the saving work of Christ most need to become clearer or more obedient in your own life?

IV. Common Confusion

Common confusion usually begins when a biblical truth is reduced to a slogan, separated from its context, or filtered through personal experience. Matthew chapter 5 and verse 17 says do not think that I have come to abolish the law of the prophets. New believers especially need help seeing the difference between a biblical category and a half-true assumption.

When confusion appears, do not answer it only with opinion. Return to the text, define your terms, and make careful distinctions. Stability grows as hard questions are brought patiently under Scripture.

V. Why This Matters for Discipleship

Truth becomes fruitful when it forms the disciple. it's something that we should praise the Lord for every single day of our lives. Biblical teaching should train the believer to worship, repent, trust, forgive, serve, pray, resist sin, and speak the gospel with clarity.

Ask where this truth should create maturity. Does it deepen assurance? Correct pride? Encourage obedience? Make Scripture more central? Strengthen witness? The question is not merely whether the content is understood, but what kind of disciple the truth is forming.

VI. How This Changes Daily Life

The saving work of Christ belongs in ordinary Christian life, not merely in a notebook. when we talk about the work of Jesus Christ number one his life he lived a life of perfect obedience. Identify one real setting where the truth should matter: a conversation, a temptation, a fear, a decision, a family moment, a church responsibility, or a private habit.

Growing in grace often happens through small, repeated acts of faithfulness. Choose one practice for this week that is concrete enough to obey, simple enough to remember, and biblical enough to strengthen your walk with Christ.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- the saving work of Christ should train the way a believer thinks, worships, and obeys.
- Scripture must set the terms before personal experience, church culture, or instinct is allowed to define the issue.
- 1 Peter 3:18 says, "For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous that we might bring that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit." The death of Jesus Christ on the cross is the centerpiece of his saving work.
- Christian maturity grows as doctrine moves from information into prayer, repentance, assurance, service, witness, and daily faithfulness.

REFLECTION

Questions for the Lesson

1. What should become clearer in your thinking about the saving work of christ?

2. Where does this truth correct a common misunderstanding or shallow habit?

3. What is one concrete step of obedience, prayer, study, or conversation you should take this week?
