3 Ways Your Life Should Change After Meeting

Jesus

4: Jesus Christ

Scripture Focus: Acts 2:38 · Colossians 3:17 · Philippians 2:10-11 · Matthew 28:18-20

Knowing Christ should transform every part of our lives. Scripture calls us to three responses: faith and repentance (receiving His gift), worship and obedience (submitting to His lordship), and proclamation and discipleship (representing Him as ambassadors in the world). He is not just Savior — He is Lord.

B Y T H E E N D

Key Terms

THEME	STUDY NOTE
Faith	Trusting God's Word and relying on Christ rather than self, merit, feeling, or religious performance.

THEME	STUDY NOTE
Salvation	God's gracious rescue of sinners through the finished work of Christ, received by faith rather than earned by works.
Sin	Any failure to love, trust, worship, and obey God as He deserves; sin separates people from God and requires divine rescue.
Repentance	A Spirit-enabled change of mind and direction: turning from sin and toward God with faith-filled obedience.
Resurrection	Christ's bodily rising from the dead, vindicating His person and securing the believer's hope.

TEACHING NOTES

I. The Main Question

Christian discipleship begins with learning to see 3 Ways Your Life Should Change After Meeting Jesus from Scripture rather than from instinct, habit, or surrounding culture. The goal is not simply to collect religious information, but to have the mind, conscience, and affections trained by God's Word. Knowing Christ should transform every part of our lives. Scripture calls us to three responses: faith and repentance (receiving His gift), worship and obedience (submitting to His lordship), and proclamation and discipleship (representing Him as ambassadors in the world). He is not just Savior — He is Lord.

A growing Christian asks: what does God require me to believe, reject, receive, or practice? Real maturity includes a clearer love for Christ, a humbler view of self, and a more faithful step of obedience.

II. What Scripture Says

Acts 2:38 and Colossians 3:17 and Philippians 2:10-11 and Matthew 28:18-20 provide the biblical anchor. These passages keep the discussion tied to God's Word and give the learner a stable foundation for reflection. Once we have put our faith in Christ, our faith and trust in Jesus Christ, the Bible also calls us number two to worship and obediently serve him.

Before moving too quickly to application, read the references slowly. Ask what the passage reveals about God, what it says about the human condition, what it commands or promises, and how it points the believer back to Christ. Scripture sets the agenda; Christian reflection follows where God has spoken.

III. The Doctrine Explained

Doctrine matters because discipleship is built on truth. We're to glorify him, to magnify him, put him as lord of our life and submit ourselves in obedience to what he's called us to do in his word which demands a third response and that is proclamation and discipleship. Doctrine is not a detached category for specialists; it names what every Christian is learning to believe, confess, defend, and practice.

Write the doctrine in your own words. Then ask how it fits into the larger story of Scripture: creation, fall, redemption, and Christian growth. A doctrine has been understood more deeply when it begins to reshape worship, repentance, assurance, humility, courage, and love.

SCRIPTURE SPOTLIGHT

Acts 2:38

Acts 2:38 should be read as more than a proof text. It gives the subject its center of gravity and keeps Christian thinking inside God's revealed Word rather than personal opinion.

Read Acts 2:38 first, then read Colossians 3:17 and Philippians 2:10-11 and Matthew 28:18-20. Notice how the passages work together: one may name the doctrine, another may show its consequence, and another may press the believer toward obedience.

Once we have put our faith in Christ, our faith and trust in Jesus Christ, the Bible also calls us number two to worship and obediently serve him.

Study the passage:

1. What does this passage teach about God, Christ, humanity, sin, grace, or obedience?

2. What word or phrase should control how you understand this truth?
3. How would this passage help a newer believer think more clearly?

FRAMEWORK

Who Christ Is and Why It Matters

CHRISTIAN CONFESSION	WHY IT MATTERS
Jesus is fully God.	His saving work has infinite worth and authority.
Jesus is fully man.	He truly represents us and truly died in our place.
Jesus is the risen Lord.	The believer's hope rests on a living Savior.

PAUSE & REFLECT

Before moving on, write one sentence answering this: where does 3 Ways Your Life Should Change After Meeting Jesus most need to become clearer or more obedient in your own life?

IV. Common Confusion

Common confusion usually begins when a biblical truth is reduced to a slogan, separated from its context, or filtered through personal experience. When we repent and ultimately believe in him, then salvation is ours. New believers especially need help seeing the difference between a biblical category and a half-true assumption.

When confusion appears, do not answer it only with opinion. Return to the text, define your terms, and make careful distinctions. Stability grows as hard questions are brought patiently under Scripture.

V. Why This Matters for Discipleship

Truth becomes fruitful when it forms the disciple. We should try to serve him with our lives. Biblical teaching should train the believer to worship, repent, trust, forgive, serve, pray, resist sin, and speak the gospel with clarity.

Ask where this truth should create maturity. Does it deepen assurance? Correct pride? Encourage obedience? Make Scripture more central? Strengthen witness? The question is not merely whether the content is understood, but what kind of disciple the truth is forming.

VI. How This Changes Daily Life

3 Ways Your Life Should Change After Meeting Jesus belongs in ordinary Christian life, not merely in a notebook. We're to glorify him, to magnify him, put him as lord of our life and submit ourselves in obedience to what he's called us to do in his word which demands a third response and that is proclamation and discipleship. Identify one real setting where the truth should matter: a conversation, a temptation, a fear, a decision, a family moment, a church responsibility, or a private habit.

Growing in grace often happens through small, repeated acts of faithfulness. Choose one practice for this week that is concrete enough to obey, simple enough to remember, and biblical enough to strengthen your walk with Christ.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- 3 Ways Your Life Should Change After Meeting Jesus should train the way a believer thinks, worships, and obeys.
- Scripture must set the terms before personal experience, church culture, or instinct is allowed to define the issue.
- Salvation is a gift of grace, as we've already seen, not something we can earn, but it is a gift that must be received through personal faith in Jesus Christ.
- Christian maturity grows as doctrine moves from information into prayer, repentance, assurance, service, witness, and daily faithfulness.

REFLECTION

Questions for the Lesson

1. What should become clearer in your thinking about 3 ways your life should change after meeting Jesus?

2. Where does this truth correct a common misunderstanding or shallow habit?

3. What is one concrete step of obedience, prayer, study, or conversation you should take this week?

PUT INTO PRACTICE

A Discipleship Conversation

Imagine a newer believer asks you about 3 ways your life should change after meeting Jesus. They are not asking for a lecture; they need a patient, Scripture-shaped answer that helps them trust Christ and take one faithful next step.

Your Task

1. Use Acts 2:38 to write a simple, biblical answer in your own words.

2. Name one practical step you would encourage this person to take this week.

3. Write one prayer request that fits the truth and the situation.
