TEACHING NOTES

I. The Main Question

Christian discipleship begins with learning to see The Holy Spirit's Role in Your Spiritual Growth from Scripture rather than from instinct, habit, or surrounding culture. The goal is not simply to collect religious information, but to have the mind, conscience, and affections trained by God's Word. The Holy Spirit's ongoing work in the believer is essential to spiritual growth. He convicts us of sin, sanctifies us over a lifetime, illuminates Scripture so we can understand it, and unites believers into one body. Walking in step with the Spirit is how we grow in Christlikeness.

A growing Christian asks: what does God require me to believe, reject, receive, or practice? Real maturity includes a clearer love for Christ, a humbler view of self, and a more faithful step of obedience.

II. What Scripture Says

John 16:8-11 and Galatians 5:22-23 and 1 Corinthians 2:12-14 and Ephesians 4:3-4 provide the biblical anchor. These passages keep the discussion tied to God's Word and give the learner a stable foundation for reflection. He's taking the word of God, applying it to my life, and changing it so I live more like Jesus Christ.

Before moving too quickly to application, read the references slowly. Ask what the passage reveals about God, what it says about the human condition, what it commands or promises, and how it points the believer back to Christ. Scripture sets the agenda; Christian reflection follows where God has spoken.

III. The Doctrine Explained

Doctrine matters because discipleship is built on truth. what makes all of your growth possible is the work of the Holy Spirit in your life. Doctrine is not a detached category for specialists; it names what every Christian is learning to believe, confess, defend, and practice.

Write the doctrine in your own words. Then ask how it fits into the larger story of Scripture: creation, fall, redemption, and Christian growth. A doctrine has been understood more deeply when it begins to reshape worship, repentance, assurance, humility, courage, and love.

SCRIPTURE SPOTLIGHT

John 16:8-11

John 16:8-11 should be read as more than a proof text. It gives the subject its center of gravity and keeps Christian thinking inside God's revealed Word rather than personal opinion.

Read John 16:8-11 first, then read Galatians 5:22-23 and 1 Corinthians 2:12-14 and Ephesians 4:3-4. Notice how the passages work together: one may name the doctrine, another may show its consequence, and another may press the believer toward obedience.

He's taking the word of God, applying it to my life, and changing it so I live more like Jesus Christ.

Study the passage:

- 1. What does this passage teach about God, Christ, humanity, sin, grace, or obedience?*
- 2. What word or phrase should control how you understand this truth?*

3. How would this passage help a newer believer think more clearly?

FRAMEWORK

The Spirit's Work in the Believer

THE SPIRIT DOES	THE BELIEVER RESPONDS
Indwells and seals God's people.	Lives with assurance and reverence.
Convicts and teaches through the Word.	Listens, repents, and obeys.
Produces fruit and strengthens witness.	Walks dependently rather than self-reliantly.

PAUSE & REFLECT

Before moving on, write one sentence answering this: where does The Holy Spirit's Role in Your Spiritual Growth most need to become clearer or more obedient in your own life?

IV. Common Confusion

Common confusion usually begins when a biblical truth is reduced to a slogan, separated from its context, or filtered through personal experience. Concerning sin, because they do not believe in me. New believers especially need help seeing the difference between a biblical category and a half-true assumption.

When confusion appears, do not answer it only with opinion. Return to the text, define your terms, and make careful distinctions. Stability grows as hard questions are brought patiently under Scripture.

V. Why This Matters for Discipleship

Truth becomes fruitful when it forms the disciple. we talked about how the Holy Spirit begins to perfect the work or the fruit of the Holy Spirit into our walk, things like joy and peace. Biblical teaching should train the believer to worship, repent, trust, forgive, serve, pray, resist sin, and speak the gospel with clarity.

Ask where this truth should create maturity. Does it deepen assurance? Correct pride? Encourage obedience? Make Scripture more central? Strengthen witness? The question is not merely whether the content is understood, but what kind of disciple the truth is forming.

VI. How This Changes Daily Life

The Holy Spirit's Role in Your Spiritual Growth belongs in ordinary Christian life, not merely in a notebook. In our last video, we talked about some of the ministry of the Holy Spirit, specifically in the church and in our spiritual life. Identify one real setting where the truth should matter: a conversation, a temptation, a fear, a decision, a family moment, a church responsibility, or a private habit.

Growing in grace often happens through small, repeated acts of faithfulness. Choose one practice for this week that is concrete enough to obey, simple enough to remember, and biblical enough to strengthen your walk with Christ.
