TEACHING NOTES

I. The Main Question

Christian discipleship begins with learning to see Why Every Christian Is Called to Evangelize from Scripture rather than from instinct, habit, or surrounding culture. The goal is not simply to collect religious information, but to have the mind, conscience, and affections trained by God's Word. This truth opens the sharing the faith section by considering the believer's calling to bear witness to Christ and participate in the mission He gave His church.

A growing Christian asks: what does God require me to believe, reject, receive, or practice? Real maturity includes a clearer love for Christ, a humbler view of self, and a more faithful step of obedience.

II. What Scripture Says

Matthew 28:18-20 and Acts 1:8 provide the biblical anchor. These passages keep the discussion tied to God's Word and give the learner a stable foundation for reflection. in this study and in the next two videos, we're going to talk about and understand what the Bible says about evangelism, sharing our faith, and giving some practical encouragement to obey God's call to be witnesses for Christ.

Before moving too quickly to application, read the references slowly. Ask what the passage reveals about God, what it says about the human condition, what it commands or promises, and how it points the believer back to Christ. Scripture sets the agenda; Christian reflection follows where God has spoken.

III. The Doctrine Explained

Doctrine matters because discipleship is built on truth. Now, the rest of the verse continues on and it highlights that is done in this discipleship process is done through baptizing and teaching believers and new Christians to observe all Christ's commands. Doctrine is not a detached category for specialists; it names what every Christian is learning to believe, confess, defend, and practice.

Write the doctrine in your own words. Then ask how it fits into the larger story of Scripture: creation, fall, redemption, and Christian growth. A doctrine has been understood more deeply when it begins to reshape worship, repentance, assurance, humility, courage, and love.

SCRIPTURE SPOTLIGHT

Matthew 28:18-20

Matthew 28:18-20 should be read as more than a proof text. It gives the subject its center of gravity and keeps Christian thinking inside God's revealed Word rather than personal opinion.

Read Matthew 28:18-20 first, then read Acts 1:8. Notice how the passages work together: one may name the doctrine, another may show its consequence, and another may press the believer toward obedience.

He entrusted us with the greatest message in the world, the good news that sinful people can be reconciled to a holy God through faith in Jesus Christ.

Study the passage:

- 1. What does this passage teach about God, Christ, humanity, sin, grace, or obedience?*
- 2. What word or phrase should control how you understand this truth?*
- 3. How would this passage help a newer believer think more clearly?*

PAUSE & REFLECT

Before moving on, write one sentence answering this: where does Why Every Christian Is Called to Evangelize most need to become clearer or more obedient in your own life?

IV. Common Confusion

Common confusion usually begins when a biblical truth is reduced to a slogan, separated from its context, or filtered through personal experience. When you think of an ambassador, it's one who represents their nation to another nation. New believers especially need help seeing the difference between a biblical category and a half-true assumption.

When confusion appears, do not answer it only with opinion. Return to the text, define your terms, and make careful distinctions. Stability grows as hard questions are brought patiently under Scripture.

V. Why This Matters for Discipleship

Truth becomes fruitful when it forms the disciple. Yet many believers feel unsure about how to share their faith. Biblical teaching should train the believer to worship, repent, trust, forgive, serve, pray, resist sin, and speak the gospel with clarity.

Ask where this truth should create maturity. Does it deepen assurance? Correct pride? Encourage obedience? Make Scripture more central? Strengthen witness? The question is not merely whether the content is understood, but what kind of disciple the truth is forming.

VI. How This Changes Daily Life

Why Every Christian Is Called to Evangelize belongs in ordinary Christian life, not merely in a notebook. I want to remind us of what Paul is saying here in this passage. Identify one real setting where the truth should matter: a conversation, a temptation, a fear, a decision, a family moment, a church responsibility, or a private habit.

Growing in grace often happens through small, repeated acts of faithfulness. Choose one practice for this week that is concrete enough to obey, simple enough to remember, and biblical enough to strengthen your walk with Christ.
