TEACHING NOTES

I. The Main Question

Christian discipleship begins with learning to see sharing the gospel clearly and kindly from Scripture rather than from instinct, habit, or surrounding culture. The goal is not simply to collect religious information, but to have the mind, conscience, and affections trained by God's Word. The teaching continues the sharing the faith section with practical help for explaining the gospel with clarity, kindness, and confidence.

A growing Christian asks: what does God require me to believe, reject, receive, or practice? Real maturity includes a clearer love for Christ, a humbler view of self, and a more faithful step of obedience.

II. What Scripture Says

1 Corinthians 15:3-4 and Colossians 4:5-6 provide the biblical anchor. These passages keep the discussion tied to God's Word and give the learner a stable foundation for reflection. Share the verses of scripture that talk about what Christ has done.

Before moving too quickly to application, read the references slowly. Ask what the passage reveals about God, what it says about the human condition, what it commands or promises, and how it points the believer back to Christ. Scripture sets the agenda; Christian reflection follows where God has spoken.

III. The Doctrine Explained

Doctrine matters because discipleship is built on truth. The Christian life is not about information alone, it is about obedience, devotion, and daily surrender. Doctrine is not a detached category for specialists; it names what every Christian is learning to believe, confess, defend, and practice.

Write the doctrine in your own words. Then ask how it fits into the larger story of Scripture: creation, fall, redemption, and Christian growth. A doctrine has been understood more deeply when it begins to reshape worship, repentance, assurance, humility, courage, and love.

SCRIPTURE SPOTLIGHT

1 Corinthians 15:3-4

1 Corinthians 15:3-4 should be read as more than a proof text. It gives the subject its center of gravity and keeps Christian thinking inside God's revealed Word rather than personal opinion.

Read 1 Corinthians 15:3-4 first, then read Colossians 4:5-6. Notice how the passages work together: one may name the doctrine, another may show its consequence, and another may press the believer toward obedience.

Share the verses of scripture that talk about what Christ has done.

Study the passage:

1. What does this passage teach about God, Christ, humanity, sin, grace, or obedience?
2. What word or phrase should control how you understand this truth?
3. How would this passage help a newer believer think more clearly?

PAUSE & REFLECT

Before moving on, write one sentence answering this: where does sharing the gospel clearly and kindly most need to become clearer or more obedient in your own life?

IV. Common Confusion

Common confusion usually begins when a biblical truth is reduced to a slogan, separated from its context, or filtered through personal experience. There's another important passage as we think through the method of evangelism, and that's Colossians chapter 4 verses 5 and 6. New believers especially need help seeing the difference between a biblical category and a half-true assumption.

When confusion appears, do not answer it only with opinion. Return to the text, define your terms, and make careful distinctions. Stability grows as hard questions are brought patiently under Scripture.

V. Why This Matters for Discipleship

Truth becomes fruitful when it forms the disciple. with God's help, it becomes a natural part of our daily lives, and it should be a regular part of our daily walk. Biblical teaching should train the believer to worship, repent, trust, forgive, serve, pray, resist sin, and speak the gospel with clarity.

Ask where this truth should create maturity. Does it deepen assurance? Correct pride? Encourage obedience? Make Scripture more central? Strengthen witness? The question is not merely whether the content is understood, but what kind of disciple the truth is forming.

VI. How This Changes Daily Life

Sharing the gospel clearly and kindly belongs in ordinary Christian life, not merely in a notebook. The Christian life is not about information alone, it is about obedience, devotion, and daily surrender. Identify one real setting where the truth should matter: a conversation, a temptation, a fear, a decision, a family moment, a church responsibility, or a private habit.

Growing in grace often happens through small, repeated acts of faithfulness. Choose one practice for this week that is concrete enough to obey, simple enough to remember, and biblical enough to strengthen your walk with Christ.

- I need to turn from my sins, and I need to put my faith in Jesus Christ in him and him alone to save me.
- Christian maturity grows as doctrine moves from information into prayer, repentance, assurance, service, witness, and daily faithfulness.
