

LESSON 09

The Unity and Distinction Within the Trinity

3: The Trinity

Executive Summary

Each Person of the Trinity — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit — is fully God, co-equal and co-eternal, yet distinct in role and relationship. Scripture repeatedly shows all three Persons active together: at Jesus' baptism, in the Great Commission, and in Paul's benedictions. The three do not act independently — they work in perfect harmony.

Key Terms

Trinity	The one true God eternally existing as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit: one in essence, three in persons.
Co-equal	Possessing the same full divine nature and glory; no Person of the Trinity is less God than another.
Co-eternal	Existing eternally together; the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit have no beginning and no end.
Distinction	The truth that the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are not the same Person, though each is fully God.

Key Verses

Matthew 3:16-17 | Matthew 28:19 | 2 Corinthians 13:14 | John 1:1,14

Application Questions

1. Read Matthew 3:16-17 and Matthew 28:19. What belief, attitude, or action do these verses call you to embrace?

2. Which key term most clarifies your understanding of unity and distinction within the Trinity, and why?

3. Where does the truth about unity and distinction within the Trinity confront a current assumption, habit, fear, temptation, or responsibility in your life?

4. What specific step of faith or obedience will you take this week, and who can help you follow through?
