

LESSON 13

Who Is the Holy Spirit? (Most Misunderstood Person of the Trinity)

5: The Holy Spirit

Executive Summary

The Holy Spirit is the most misunderstood Person of the Trinity — sometimes over-mystified as a force to be manipulated, sometimes diminished to an impersonal influence. Scripture is clear: He is a Person with mind, emotions, and will, and He is fully God, co-equal and co-eternal with the Father and the Son.

Key Terms

Holy Spirit	The divine Person who indwells, teaches, convicts, empowers, and forms believers into the likeness of Christ.
Personhood	The qualities of mind, will, emotion, relationship, and action that show the Holy Spirit is a divine Person.
Deity	The full divine nature; Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit are truly and eternally God.
Trinity	The one true God eternally existing as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit: one in essence, three in persons.

Key Verses

John 14:16-17 | Acts 5:3-4 | Ephesians 4:30 | Psalm 139:7-10

Application Questions

1. Read John 14:16-17 and Acts 5:3-4. What belief, attitude, or action do these verses call you to embrace?

2. Which key term most clarifies your understanding of the person and deity of the Holy Spirit, and why?

3. Where does the truth about the person and deity of the Holy Spirit confront a current assumption, habit, fear, temptation, or responsibility in your life?

4. What specific step of faith or obedience will you take this week, and who can help you follow through?
